I apologize. I sent the old map file rather than the updated one. The correct one is attached. I was traveling yesterday and didn't have access to my files.

This whole project has been like pulling teeth. Lots of handholding and waiting at every turn. I'm at more than double the hours we budgeted for the entire scope, and am writing my time off as pro bono work as this point. I'd just like to finish it and have a report everyone likes. As I think I mentioned way back when, there is $1,000 available for design layout if that helps. I haven't billed it yet (it's the final payment,) but I'm happy to ship it your way. Just send me an invoice for it and a W-9 for my records.

Warmest regards,
Tara

Hi Tara,

The attached map seems to be out of date. It still has Tom LaBonge list on it. Do you have a newer version?

Also, this project might be a little more work than I originally anticipated. Is there any budget to cover the labor cost for the layout and design time?

Thank you,
Mike Russell

I don't think I sent you this before; the Clerk finally got me a revised/current map last week, so you won't have to edit the out-of-date one as you'd offered to do.

There's a placeholder in the report for this.
